

Apollo Table Range, Apollo

Superbly engineered and with a robust, assured design, Apollo is a contemporary meeting and conference table range. Available in a broad range of dimensions and forms, Apollo is a stylish collection fit for a variety of office environments. Featuring a selection of table top finishes with a square edge detail, the distinctive extruded leg detail comes in polished aluminium as standard or optional painted silver, black, white or chrome. Its corporate profile includes the option for discreet and integrated table-top power and data connection points, with cable management as standard.
